AOTeaROA
Wed @ 6pm

Here's a new programme starting on Plains FM. It's 55 minutes of music – kiwi style. Join Rhys Hughes as he plays all the latest, the classics, the not-so-well know music from New Zealand. If it's kiwi... you know you'll hear something you'll like.

HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION
Mon @ noon – this is only on for 5 wks.

This is an interesting interview that took place at Wellington Access Radio with a mediator from the Human Rights Commission based in Wellington. They spoke about what the commission does, what discrimination is and what the commission can do to help people who've been discriminated against. Really interesting and worth tuning in to.

WOMEN ON AIR
Sat 10-12noon

Something of a literary bent this week. Morrin talks with novelist Elizabeth Knox about the sequel to the internationally acclaimed 'The Vintner's Luck'. The angel is back and living in Hollywood in the racy 1930's when stunt pilots and airplanes were taking to the skies. She's also speaking with Banks Peninsula writer, Fiona Farrell about her new novel 'Limestone' and the upcoming WOA event where Fiona will be paired with Dame Fiona Kidman who has just launched the second part of her memoirs. Other guests include Montana Poetry finalist, Sonja Yelich and artist/musician Mary Rose Crooks, just back from a year in China and Berlin, who has a new exhibition opening this week at the Brooke Gifford Gallery. So plenty to keep you interested on this Saturdays WOA!

BOOKENZ (past programme returning!)
Wed @ 10am

BOOKENZ is back with Morrin Rout and Ruth Todd, your book fanatics, on Weds at 10.00 from this week. Don't miss the interviews with fascinating writers from here and abroad plus all the latest book news. A truly delicious programme for bookworms.

A BELCH ON SPORT
Fridays @ noon

A programme all about sport. Everything about it from opinion to fact to fun sporty skits. Join Mark Belcher and Paddy Holder for 25 mins of sport talk. It's not your usual sports programme so check it out... oh and there's a bottle of wine to be won so brush up on your sporting knowledge and tune in.
